Daily Thoughts and Prayers

- Nature holds for us a rich treasure. She has lessons for us, but we must have spiritual vision to perceive who she offers. We take layer after layer off ignorance and things unfold themselves: this is the real secret of revelation. When it comes, man realizes he has a mighty spiritual heritage, that he has the power of divinity within him. But no one can force this realization on us, we must acquire it our selves.
- Universal vision gives us a conception of Divine Being. Through universal vision we approach nearer and nearer to the supreme. We cannot have freedom of life if we have crookedness or narrowness in our thought or habit. We cannot have access to God without sincerity and directness. Only absolute trust – such trust as a child has to his mother – will enable us to establish a living relationship with Godhead.
- Service, humility and purity are the foundation of character. Without them no spiritual growth is possible. So, one must practice these qualities with earnestness and sincerity, and God will come. When we know that great spirit, whom we call Father or Mother, as our own, all pride, fear and turbulence vanish and we find peace. As our heart becomes free from blemish, we feel the presence of the Divine within us and we are able to reflect it in our outer life, but we do not keep it to enjoy selfishly, we give it to others in every word, act and thought.

SHRI MANGAL MANDIR TRUST

Date: 10/24/21

Dear Devotees,

Jai Shri Krishna! I hope this letter finds you and your family well. I hope that the year 2021 has been successful for you and your family so far.

Now, as the COVID-19 pandemic crisis is easing on us, the restrictions are getting relaxed but we need to be and are vigilant. At Shri Mangal Mandir we have remained compliant with CDC and other government agencies.

We have used social media platforms and tried to connect our community with one another while we remained behind our shields, protected from direct contact at the cost of reduced foot traffic to the Mandir. We have used these platforms for our daily Aarti, all festivals, puja and rituals, and allowed our community to participate virtually from the comforts of their homes. We made infrastructure improvements with new cameras and lighting in the Mandir hall for better online streaming. But now, we are reopening with temple activities including our Karmakand activities with needed precautions. We hosted Navratri Garba including a successful Ashtami Havan.

Our Mandir income and Karmakand income has dropped considerably with the reduced foot traffic in 2020 and part of 2021. We have reduced our expenses to minimum and postponed all budgeted improvement projects. We have aggressively tried to go after many grant/loan processes from federal, state and even private corporations and we have succeeded in some cases. New grant opportunities are no longer available.

The measures we took are no longer enough to sustain us. We need to start facing our financial challenges related to operation, maintenance and improvement. At this stage, we request your financial support through generous donations in these unprecedented times.

Each year, during the time of Diwali festivals we make a special pledge to the community and you respond well. As stated below:

“Among all twelve months, the month of KARTIKA is dear to Lord Sri Krishna. If somebody performs a little worship of Lord Sri Hari in this Month, He offers that devotee his own ABODE.”

– Padma Puran.

During this Diwali festival we are once again approaching you to pledge your financial support.

- Donate online using credit cards on our website: <https://www.mangalmandir.org/> and select DONATE.
- Make check payable to Shri Mangal Mandir and send it to either The temple address or to: Bhargav Desai, 7166 Long View Road, Columbia, MD 21044.
- Deposit directly in our bank account. For bank account information, please contact Mr. Harshad Parikh 301-653-8810.

Our financial strength comes from your financial support. We are very appreciative that you are a part of our mandir family, and for all the participation, seva and support you offer. Our Mandir stands strong with your involvement.

On behalf of Shri Mangal Mandir Trust

Arvind Patel, CEO for
