Daily Thoughts and Prayers

- Whenever you try to serve the Divine with spontaneous feeling, without thought of self, then nothing can resist you. Know this, and nothing will ever be able to thwart you. When you start with a generous devoted spirit, all your efforts must meet with success. Spirituality is a revelation. It is revealed not only to the prophet or the teacher, but also to the devotee who is humble, enduring and selfless. Unless you have spiritual vision, when difficulties arise you will not be able to meet them. You must safeguard yourself by acquiring this wisdom. Wisdom is abiding and always sustains.
- Our happiness depends on the happiness of others. We should expand our little nature. There is no such thing as selfish happiness in our personal life; there is no such thing as selfish happiness in social life; there is no such thing as selfish happiness in spiritual life. Unhappiness means that we close our hearts to the higher avenues of true joy. True happiness is contained in the Infinite and Eternal.
- A house should never be kept in the dark. It becomes desolate and loses all its charm and atmosphere. The same way with human life. We may have all the ornaments and gifts, but if the spiritual light does not glow and glorify everything, that life is dead and in darkness. When the light of devotion, faith and hope illumines it, it is safe; otherwise, it is in danger, because it is not sanctified and protected.
- When we are under the persuasion of ego and self-interest enters in; anxieties overtake us, and our faith and courage grow weak. But when we come to realize how small our power is, how undependable is our intellect, how fleeting outer conditions are, we begin to draw more and more on that which is lasting. Then for the first time, we have a real sense of rest and security, and new courage and hope awaken in our heart.

SHRI MANGAL MANDIR TRUST

Jai Shri Krishna.

Hinduism is more than a religion. It is a culture, a way of life, and a code of behavior. Hindu temple is the focus of all aspects of Hindu life – religious, cultural, social, and educational. Hindu mandirs thrive through the support of the community members volunteering and offering financial support.

On the religious front, apart from the regular observance of the major Hindu festivals, Shri Mangal Mandir hosted the following sessions this year:

1. Mahabharat by Pujiya Murlikaji
2. Srimad Bhagavatam by H.G. Lal Govind Das Prabhuji
3. Live Sunderkand Paath by Shri Ashwin Kumar Pathakji
4. Vachnamrut by Shri Hariraiji Mahodayshri

All the speakers are very well versed in the scriptures and drew a large audience.

By hosting Shri Mangal Mandir BalGokulam (MMBG), our mandir provides a platform for the next generation to educate themselves of the customs and traditions of Hinduism. Mandir also runs a Senior Club where members can avail services and assistance. Both MMBG and Senior Club provide social and educational avenues to learn and to bond with peers with shared values.

As a part of our efforts towards strengthening the body and mind, Mandir has hosted the following:

1. Yoga session, for yogis of all levels, held during the International Day of Yoga and still ongoing during the fall season.
2. Free health fair held over two Saturdays. We served almost 300 community people each day, drew their blood and provided complete analysis. The results were reviewed by about 25-30 doctors and allied health professionals.
3. Administered 90 free flu vaccines.

Over the years Shri Mangal Mandir has been supported by the DAAN from the members of the society. During this auspicious month of Karthik, we are once again approaching you to pledge your financial support.

- Donate online using credit cards on our website:
<https://www.mangalmandir.org/donate> or scan QR code.
- Make check payable to Shri Mangal Mandir and send it to the temple address:
17110 New Hampshire Avenue, Ashton, Md. 20861
- Deposit directly in our bank account. For bank account information, please contact Mr. Harshad Parikh 301-653-8810.

We request your continued support of Shri Mangal Mandir. Thank you.
